PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On April 13, 2007, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors and the Company's management concluded that the consolidated financial statements for the first quarter of fiscal 2007 ended December 31, 2006 and for the eleven-month transition period ended September 30, 2006 and one or more fiscal quarters in such transition period should no longer be relied upon due to certain accounting errors found at one of its divisions. The Company is diligently evaluating the impact of these accounting errors on its previously filed financial statements and continuing the process of restating the financial statements included in, and preparing amendments to, the relevant Exchange Act reports it previously filed.

As a result of the errors and restatements discussed above, the time required to amend the relevant Exchange Act reports and the effect of such restatements on the consolidated financial statements to be included in the quarterly report for the quarter ended March 31, 2007, we were unable to prepare and file our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 within the time period prescribed by Rule 13a-13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. We plan to file our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 as soon as practicable. We are still assessing whether such errors were the result of a material weakness in our internal controls over financial reporting.
